Any attempted assignment, transfer or other conveyance in violation of the foregoing shall be null and void.
- 8.7 Invalidity. If any provision of these Terms is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, that provision is agreed to have effect to the extent possible to reflect its original intent. The remainder of these Terms will remain valid and enforceable.
- 8.8 Third party rights. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to confer any rights or remedies on anyone other than the parties to the Agreement and their respective successors, representatives and assigns. The provisions of this Agreement shall not entitle any person not a signatory to this Agreement to any rights as a third-party beneficiary, or otherwise, it being the specific intention of the parties hereto to preclude any and all non-signatory parties from any such third party beneficiary rights, or any other rights whatsoever, including any rights of enforcement of the Terms under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

8.9 Dispute resolution.

- a. Arbitration. Except for disputes regarding non-payment of Fees, if a dispute arises that cannot be resolved within 30 days, then We and You will attempt to settle the dispute through mediation under the International Chamber of Commerce's Commercial Mediation Procedures within 90 days. We may use a collections or similar agency to obtain any unpaid Fees.

8.10 Governing law. Disputes for Unpaid Fees brought in the United States of America are governed by the laws of the State of California and shall be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts of San Francisco, California, without regard to conflict of law principles. All other disputes under these Terms are governed by the laws of England and Wales.

Service Terms

Employment Services

Employment Services. Through Our Employment Services, We, as the Employer, engage and employ individuals to provide You services (Employees).

1.1 Our obligations. We will perform the following Employer obligations to industry standards:

- confirming that an Employee has the right to work in the relevant jurisdiction,
- managing payroll and benefits (including paying Employees' salaries, applicable taxes, and withholdings),
- hiring and onboarding onto the Platform,
- managing absences and time off requests,
- managing disciplinary issues, and
- terminating Employees.

Employer tax or other obligations relating to any equity, token, option, or similar grant may be handled by Remote at our discretion, subject to timely notification of taxable events by You, provision of all required documents and information by You, and applicable laws.

1.2 Your obligations. You agree to:

- provide Us accurate information to allow Us to provide You Employment Services (including, but not limited to, paid time off, holiday balances, hours worked, overtime, sick leave and any additional information necessary for Us to properly classify Employees in accordance with applicable laws),
- ensure that Employees have the professional licenses, credentials, and qualifications required to provide You services,
- ensure that Employees' working environments meet applicable occupational health and safety requirements, and
- not enter into any agreement with an Employee that is in breach of these Terms or may place Us in breach of these Terms.

Any payments required to be made by Us to the Employee (including, but not limited to, paid time off or overtime balances) are based on the documents and information available to Us and applicable laws.

- 1.3 Employment Agreements. Employment Agreements will be based on local law and may include Your additional specifications for the services provided. We also require Employees to:

- follow any codes of conduct or similar policies Remote or You may provide (subject to the Employment Agreement and applicable law),
- keep Your information confidential (You may ask Employees to sign a confidentiality agreement with You in addition to the confidentiality provisions contained in Our Employment Agreements),
- comply with applicable laws while providing their services to You, and
- agree to intellectual property terms to facilitate the transfer of intellectual property from the Employee to You.

- 1.4 Terminating or Changing Employment Services. You acknowledge that We, as the Employer, will implement any changes to Employment Agreements or Employment Services and take any administrative actions concerning Employees (such as terminating Employees) at Our sole discretion. If You want to request changes or actions related to the provision of services, You must notify Remote in advance via the Platform or in writing and provide Us with the relevant information We may require. We will implement and inform Employees of any such changes or actions (as limited by these Terms, Remote's business model in a jurisdiction, and Our position as Employer); You may not inform Employees without Remote's prior consent.

- 1.5 Employment Claims. As the Employer, We will conduct the defence and settlement of any claims, actions, lawsuits, concerns, allegations, grievances, inspections, investigations, or regulatory matters against Us in connection with Employment Services (Employment Claims). We will take reasonable steps to consult with You and agree with You on any defence, response, settlement, or compromise (Your agreement not to be unreasonably withheld, delayed, or conditioned). In the event of any withholding, delay, unreasonable conditional approval, immediate Termination under these Terms, or breach of these Terms, We will have the right to defend or settle any Employment Claims without Your consultation or agreement. In all cases, You will cooperate and provide all information We reasonably request to conduct the defence and/or settlement of Employment Claims and We will have the right to charge You any applicable Employment Fees.

1.6 Employment Fees: Fees payable by You for Employment Services will include:

- Our Management Fee, the flat monthly Service Fee charged per Employee,

- any applicable discounts.

Where applicable, Employment Fees may also include:

- expenses incurred by Employees and approved by You via the Platform or in writing (such as travel, food allowances, and equipment reimbursements),
- all costs and expenses, including losses, damages, fines, penalties, settlements, and reasonable legal fees, incurred in connection with Employment Services (including any costs or expenses related to Employment Claims), except to the extent such costs or expenses are solely due to Our violation of these Terms,
- applicable indirect taxes You are responsible for paying (such as VAT, GST, consumption tax, stamp tax, or sales tax), and
- any other fees, costs, or charges agreed to by You (including, but not limited to, fees for visa or other applications, translations, and intellectual property letters, forms, or registrations).

Remote will inform You if changes in local law, collective agreement, or regulations change the amount of these fees.

1.7 Invoicing. You will be invoiced for Employment Fees (such as Management Fee, salary, taxes, and benefits) in the month preceding the date(s) when an Employee is paid. After an Employee is paid, You will receive either (a) an invoice that includes a charge for any Employment Fees not included in the original invoice; or (b) a credit note that will be applied to a subsequent invoice.

Intellectual Property

2.1 Your Intellectual Property. Each Remote Affiliate providing You with Employment Services hereby immediately transfer and assign to You absolutely, with full title guarantee, all Intellectual Property Rights in any Works to the extent permitted by law. Each such Affiliate hereby waives, and shall cause each Employee to waive, all moral rights in any Work to the extent permitted by law.

Works means ALL works or materials created or developed by Employees selected by You that are owned by (or transferred, conveyed, or licensed to) Remote under Remote's corresponding Employment Agreements or any other agreement (Works).

2.2 Further Assurances. Remote (together with any Remote Affiliate providing You with Employment Services) will take all action and execute all documents as You may reasonably request to confirm and effectuate the transfer and assignment of the Intellectual Property Rights in any Works in accordance with this section. In addition, to the extent permitted by applicable law, Remote will, at Your request and sole cost and expense, but without additional compensation, execute all applications, specifications, oaths, assignments, and other instruments and perform such other acts necessary in order to apply for and obtain these Intellectual Property Rights in any Works. Remote's obligation to provide assistance will continue after the termination or expiration of this Terms. Remote will not register or apply for, in its name or any third party's name, any Intellectual Property Rights (in any country) related to the Works.

- 2.3 Background IP. To the extent that any Work is based on, incorporates, or is an improvement or derivative of any Background IP, each Remote Affiliate providing You with Employment Services hereby transfers to You, to the maximum extent permitted by law, any right or interest that it has or may have in or to such Background IP.

Background IP means any Intellectual Property Rights owned by any party other than a Remote Affiliate.

LIABILITY

- 3.1 Limitation of Liability. Indemnities for Employment Services are not subject to the General Cap or the Super Cap.
- 3.2 Exclusions. We will also not be liable to You for claims, losses, penalties, damages or negative consequences that result from or are caused by (in whole or in part) an authoritative governmental body determining, despite these Terms, that an Employee is employed by You.

- onboard Your Contractors and carry out an identity verification,

- 1.2 Your obligations. You are responsible for:

- ensuring that a Contractor's information on the Platform is accurate,

1.1 Our Service Warranty. We warrant that We will:

- provide You with a CSA to use with each Contractor that is in compliance with applicable laws governing worker classification, and

1.2 Your Warranty. You warrant that You will:

- execute Our jurisdiction specific CSA with each Contractor,
- execute any updates to the Statement of Work (as needed to accurately reflect the services between You and a Contractor), and

- hold out a Contractor as an employee of Your business, including, but not limited to:
 - o providing a Contractor benefits, such as health insurance, time off, allowances towards healthcare or pensions, or remuneration for professional liability or other insurances,
